NARRATIVE	On 07-19-11 i was working as a patrol officer patrolling the area of Westwood and Grove in Mesa, AZ.
	I approached the 4 way stop heading south. It was approximately 2130 hours in the evening. I observed a black sedan sitting at the 4 way stop. and observed at least 2 cars arrive after the black sedan however the sedan never moved. The other cars proceeded on and I even stopped and proceeded south past the vehicle also. The windows were darkly tinted and I could not see in. I thought this was possibly an intoxicated driver passed out at the wheel so i made a u turn and pulled up behind the vehcile. I observed the AZ plate of USBG. The car still did not move so I ran the plate. Then the car proceeded north on Westwood to Southern. I followed and as we turned east on Southern. [REDACTED]
	[REDACTED]. I advised for a backup and stopped the vehicle at 931 E. Southern. I contacted the driver who was identified by AZ D/L as Jason Todd Ready.
	I recognized this name from some political issues a few years back and he also told me he had run for City Council a few years back. Ready advised me he was wearing a handgun openly on his right hip. I had him step out and I removed the loaded Beretta handgun from his holster.

Officer's Narrative (continued)

Ready told me the reason he was stopped at the sign was because he was on the phone with someone from KTAR radio and they wanted to do some type of an interview with him about some recent Border issue he was involved with.

I then contacted the parties on the NCIC hit and advised them I had stopped Ready.

I also later contacted MPD Det Serenka via email and advised him of the stop.

I did not find any had been committed crime and he was advised to stop off the roadway if in this situation again.

The gun was unloaded and returned.

Nothing furtherat this time/field closed
